

ASSERT CHIPPS MURDERED NORRIS' MURDER 4 YEARS

Witnesses Testify to His Threats to Slay.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.
More than four years ago, the late J. H. Chipps of Fort Worth held the thought that he must slay the Rev. J. Frank Norris.

His depth was added today to the testimony of this minister's trial for murder, and as the two leading characters are drawn more closely into the picture, the impression is given of a mental force drawn more and more toward a conflict that must end in tragedy.

It was Chipps who died instead of the fighting evangelist seems to have been the only accident about the case was a slow, sure growth.

Dr. Norris says it was not until he was led away.

"He cursed me," said the officer and said: "I'm going to start me a graveyard and put you and Norris in it."

"I asked who Norris was and he said he was a preacher."

Features of Chipps' Character.
Many other glimpses are given of Chipps. He was a strong, heavy, red-headed, half-breed man—fond of the girls of this world; jovial most of the time, seen about the streets in his playing cards, drinking beer, and he had an opportunity.

He was fairly sober in the morning, but by sundown he was "well lit."

By much the thirty-seven were on the judgment day for Chipps' murder, the lumber merchant was a quarrelsome, sometimes violent and dangerous.

He was shown fighting with police, raising a riot in hotel lobbies, being thrown out of hotels, making himself a spectacle and nuisance everywhere.

At the time he made his first threat against Dr. Norris, in 1922, H. C. Meacham, present mayor, was foreman of the grand jury and as such was at the trial by Norris in his sermons for the coming up Hill's Half Acre.

Beginning of the Conflict.
Norris, never, quite, his crusade against vice and Chipps grew more and more intense. Yet four and a half years passed before this obsession reached its action.

A new bit of evidence came late this afternoon from Herman Williams, who was a filling station in Fort Worth, Williams had been reading the late Norris' attack on the Fort Worth evangelist. He knew Mayor Meacham and Chipps were friends, so, on July 14, three days before Chipps was taken to the city jail, he called on Chipps at his garage and asked:

"What do you think about what Norris is saying about Meacham?"

And Chipps exploded: "If he don't stop it, I'll kill him."

For the last two or three months of his life Chipps was seldom sober, it appeared from the testimony.

The day before the shooting he made another threat to kill Norris, City Detective Harry Connor of Fort Worth testified.

"He said he was going to kill Norris," said Connor. "He had a pistol with him that day."

The proprietor of the Keystone hotel in Fort Worth testified that Chipps had raised a row in his hotel and had displayed an automatic gun five or six inches long.

The defense expects to conclude in almost two days.

Cosmo Del Prete, 19 years old, 1016 Newberry avenue, confessed at the police bureau last night that he and three other men had committed a series of burglaries in clothing stores that gave them loot valued at $150,000.

At the time he was taken into custody Del Prete was wearing a suit taken from the Burn & Grasse store at 10 South Dearborn street.

Del Prete estimated the number of burglaries in which he was involved at nearly 100. He and his confederates worked between 3 and 5 a. m., he said, smashing windows and quickly loading clothing into their automobile.

REFUSED AS JUROR

HAROLD H. SWIFT.

Harold H. Swift, vice president of Swift & Co., was willing to do his duty as a citizen and serve on a Criminal court jury yesterday, but attorneys representing nine boys of high school age who are charged with the murder of Stanley Ciesla last Halloween night during an alleged robbery, refused to give him the opportunity.

Attorney Harry J. Bugha, representing some of the defendants, used a peremptory challenge on Mr. Swift, despite his statements under oath that he would give the boys a fair trial.

"I have been called several times, but was always excused by the defense," said Mr. Swift in response to a question as to whether or not he had previous jury experience.

As the trial went into the first day of its second week four more jurors pledged to inflict the death penalty, if the case warrants such punishment.

Four more jurors were sworn in. This makes eight jurors selected and hope was expressed that the panel would be completed today.

17 INDICTED FOR WOMAN'S DEATH IN CHURCH FEUD

Pastor's Housekeeper Is Called Mob Victim.

Seventeen persons, including five young married women and their husbands and seven other men, all of Downers Grove, were indicted for manslaughter yesterday by the Du Page county grand jury as the climax to a small town church row.

It was in connection with the sudden death, presumably from heart disease, on Wednesday of Mrs. Anna Rucinska, 40 years old, housekeeper for the Rev. Father Boleslaus Nowakowski, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Downers Grove, that the true bills were returned.

Mrs. Rucinska died of shock superinduced by being manhandled and thrown bodily from the St. Mary's parsonage by an angry mob of parishioners, among whom were the defendants, the grand jury found.

Fifty-one indictments all told were returned, the seventeen being also charged with conspiracy and rioting after ten witnesses, including the Rev. Nowakowski, had been called before the jury by State's Attorney Chauncey W. Reed at Wheaton.

Pastor Tells of Row.
While awaiting his turn to testify the Rev. Nowakowski told something of how the row came about and it is often hard to make both ends meet.

"I have been called several times, but was always excused by the defense," said Mr. Swift in response to a question as to whether or not he had previous jury experience.

As the trial went into the first day of its second week four more jurors pledged to inflict the death penalty, if the case warrants such punishment.

Tolstoi Ideals Told

COUNT ILYA TOLSTOI.

Count Ilya Tolstoi, son of Leo Tolstoi, told his father's life last night at the 32nd St. Hirsch community center, 4422 Grand boulevard.

Tolstoi, from meditation and from conversations with the Russian peasant, his son said, adopted passive resistance as his guiding principle. By means of the "turn the other cheek" policy, the Russian peasant is overcoming the bolshevists, the count said.

The inclusion of the Russian peasant in the bill makes certain a bitter fight when conferees of the senate and the house seek to adjust the differences between their respective bills. Senator Hale (Rep., Me.), chairman of the senate naval committee, declared he was assured of a substantial majority in the senate in favor of all of the increases, and he asserted that the senate conferees would stand pat for the bill in spite of administration and budget bureau opposition which would be brought to bear particularly against the cruiser appropriation.

Heed Navy Officers' Complaints.
Senator Hale, who, as chairman of a sub-committee on naval appropriations, reported the bill to the full appropriations committee, declared that high officials in the navy had complained that economies forced upon them by the budget bureau were endangering the efficiency of the navy and crippling its activities.

Senator Hale insisted before the committee that the slashes of the budget bureau were in direct defiance of policies adopted by congress and he declared that information before the sub-committee indicated that Director of the Budget Lord had relied upon the advice of a retired sergeant major of the army quartermaster corps in making up estimates of the navy's needs.

SENATE STICKS TO DEMAND FOR 3 NEW CRUISERS

Committee Puts It Back in Navy Supply Bill.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—[Special.]—Initial appropriation toward the construction of three light cruisers, defeated in the house a few days ago by only two votes, is included in the navy department's supply bill, favorably reported by the senate appropriations committee today.

The bill recommends appropriations aggregating $220,025,534—a net increase of $5,267,554 over the total voted by the house and $1,215,534 over that recommended by the budget bureau.

The increases over the house bill include $2,000,000 more to further the five year naval aviation program, $1,200,000 for a start on the three cruisers remaining unbuild in the 1924 building program and $1,723,534 to provide for a naval personnel of 84,000 men, as against 75,000 voted by the house.

MA GIVES WAY TODAY WHEN MOODY BECOMES GOVERNOR OF TEXAS

Austin, Tex., Jan. 17.—[Special.]—Texas tonight awaits the inauguration of Dan Moody, the thirty-three year old crusader who led the anti-klan fight two years ago and who tomorrow will succeed Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, the "ma" of Temple.

Mrs. Ferguson has just announced her intention of making a farewell speech from the inaugural stand. It also is expected that before she goes back to private life she will issue pardons and paroles probably to 150 more convicts, which will bring her total of "pardons" as she calls them, to about 3,450 for two years.

"Jim" Ferguson, her husband, on whose shoulders most Texans place the responsibility for the policies which brought about Mrs. Ferguson's defeat for reelection, will be on the platform with his wife.

It is expected that at least 50,000 persons will witness the inauguration ceremonies, which will be broadcast and will include the full program of the cowboy band of Abilene and other musical organizations which take part in the ceremonies in the open air.

said Mr. Chaplin was sending it to me and Mr. Chaplin paid a milk bill of $27. Q—How old are the children? A—One is 18 months old and the other is 9 months.

Receiver is Called. Herman Spittel, one of the receivers, followed Mrs. Chaplin to the stand. He reported that he and Associate Receiver W. I. Gilbert were still searching for property belonging to Chaplin, after taking over the Chaplin home in Beverly Hills, his studio, two bank accounts in the name of Chaplin corporations in a Hollywood bank, and a number of safe deposit boxes which have not been opened.

Lyndal Young, of counsel for Mrs. Chaplin, had introduced into the record a statement concerning the financial condition of Chaplin. It dealt with the period since Chaplin married Lita Grey, and was said to have been prepared by Chaplin himself. It follows: Income from "The Gold Rush," $2,561,345.

Cost of "The Gold Rush," $835,948. Cost of "The Circus" (a picture in process of completion), $225,415 to date. Income tax paid in 1925 and 1926, $53,131 and $106,250.

Personal expenses (mainly household), $45,261. Paid to and for Mrs. Chaplin, $45,260.

Gift for care of Chaplin's mother, $10,029.

Balance Near Million. The statement, at the time it was drawn, showed Chaplin had a balance of $1,125,570.

Chaplin was not represented officially by counsel at the hearing today, but during the course of the morning Gavin McNab, who gained freedom for Fatty Arbuckle, got Mary Pickford's divorce legalised, and defended Jack Dempsey in the draft evasion case, appeared in. He said he was not departing Chaplin, but was merely engaged in guarding the interests of the Chaplin Studios and other business ventures.

He was pounced upon by Mr. Young and asked him if any of Chaplin's funds had been left in his care to support Mrs. Chaplin and the two children.

"I have none of Mr. Chaplin's money for this or other purposes," McNab replied. "But I will be glad to tender a personal check for the support of the two children. I am prepared to make this much of a statement, that neither in good faith has already been made to support the children, but it was waived by Mrs. Chaplin's attorney, who seemingly wished to have Chaplin to accuse him of non-support."

"PEACHES" BROWNING, "DADDY" MAY SETTLE CASE OUT OF COURT

New York, Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Settlement out of court of the troubles of Edward W. Browning and his 16 year old wife, "Peaches," was reported today as opposing lawyers conferred. The trial of the separation suit is set for next Monday at Carmel.

The lawyers refused to discuss the report of a settlement. Anna Olsen, a telephone operator at Kew Gardens Inn at the time the Brownings lived there, was to have appeared today to tell in advance an overheard story of how young "Peaches" and her mother plotted to "take" the well to do real estate man for a "great haul." But Miss Olsen, described as "young, pretty, and redheaded," failed to appear, and reports of a settlement were circulated.

It is said she would be examined later this week.

Each side started to try the case "before the public." Counsel for Mrs. Chaplin issued this statement: "The court's action speaks for itself. It has judicially determined the proper and reasonable amount necessary for Mrs. Chaplin and her children and that Mrs. Chaplin is the proper person to have the custody of her children. Now if Mr. Chaplin's statements that he will provide for the maintenance of his children are sincere the amounts fixed by the court will be immediately paid. If the money is not paid without delay the public can draw its own conclusions."

Attorney McNab, apparently, had become counsel for Chaplin personally instead of for the Chaplin studios, for he retailed with a statement calling today's proceedings "a second gold rush," and adding: "I would have been perfectly willing to do as I testified and write a check for the children's upkeep, but I have yet to see two children able to spend $3,000 a month. The only thing they did not ask for was a court order to have Mr. Chaplin get out of bed in New York and complete his forthcoming picture so they could have more money."

Takes Silence Oath. New York, Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Charlie Chaplin is being kept on a rigid silence diet in the home of his lawyer, Nathan Burkan. Outside of Mr. Burkan and his personal representative, Arthur W. Kelly, the comedian has seen no one, it was said today.

In spite of Chaplin's nervous condition he must prepare his answer to his wife's divorce suit within the next few days. Under the law he has ten days to file his answer, and this is the ninth day. It is believed he will ask for an extension of time.

The answer will be prepared by Mr. Burkan and his staff and forwarded to Los Angeles. The lawyer said today that he will appear in the trial in behalf of Chaplin. He may also be a witness, since he was present at Chaplin's wedding.

In spite of Chaplin's nervous condition he must prepare his answer to his wife's divorce suit within the next few days. Under the law he has ten days to file his answer, and this is the ninth day. It is believed he will ask for an extension of time.

Find Simple Way to Revive Sleeping Hair Roots

Stops Falling Hair—Grows New Hair GUARANTEED IN WRITING

Discover 91% of falling hair and baldness unnecessary now. Rejuvenate dormant hair roots

THAT almost 91% of falling hair and baldness is unnecessary is the remarkable pronouncement of men of science—a pronouncement based on recent scientific findings.

It has been learned that hair roots seldom die. Hence that the dormant roots—inactive under the surface of the scalp, which science yesterday largely considered beyond recall—can be revived. When they are, new hair grows; falling hair stops; hair growth unknown before sets in.

A radically new method has been discovered. Tested last three years in some of the most famous hospitals, carefully kept records reveal it as 91% effective. Now is your chance to try it.

Results guaranteed in writing. It is called the Van Ess Liquid Soap Massage. You use it at home—a few quick rubs each night or morning—that's all. It is different from any other hair method known. It does what no other method does or has ever done.

That is, it causes tremendous active root-rejuvenating and germ-killing elements directly to the roots of hair.

This method is now available at all drug stores. Simply ask for Van Ess Liquid Soap Massage. Get the full 15-day guarantee or your money back. Or obtain the 15-day trial bottle.

ARCHBISHOP AT HEAD OF REVOLT; 100 MEXICANS DIE

Battles Rage; Prelate Arouses Peasants.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)

(Copyright 1927, By The Chicago Tribune.)

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 17.—Francisco

Jimenez, archbishop of Guadalajara, and outstanding figure in the Catholic world since the death of Pascual Diaz, bishop of Veracruz, last week, has revolted against the Calles government. He is now in the mountains of the state of Jalisco stirring up the faithful.

After fighting in Jalisco and Durango between Catholic rebels and federal troops is reported in despatches received tonight.

100 Rebels Killed in Battle.

Gen. Perrier, commander of the federal troops in the state of Jalisco, reports that after fighting his way through strong forces of insurgents he reached the besieged town of Tepetitlan yesterday and after three hours of battle defeated the insurgents, who retreated toward the mountains. The rebels were 100 killed. The federal army losses were much less owing to better armaments and military discipline.

The forces of Gen. Anacleto Lopez fought in a desperate battle with rebels under Damasco Barragan, a prominent Catholic leader at San Lorenzo. The rebels were reported defeated after several hours of fighting and Barragan was killed.

Gen. Gonzalo Escobar's troops are battling with rebels under the guerrilla leader, Tirso Gueroles, at San Bartolome.

Rebels ambushed federal troops near Tepetitlan. Timely warning of spies made by Gen. Lopez of the federal army prevented a surprise attack.

Mexico's Most Popular Prelate.

Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez is held upon as the most popular man in the Mexican Catholic church. He has the confidence of all the Mexican Catholics. His entrance, therefore, into the struggle against the Calles government must be considered a move of importance. He led a revolt against former President Obregon and, after leaving the United States, spent two years there. He was also in trouble with the Carranza government.

Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez two weeks ago announced his intention of making a pastoral tour of the state of Jalisco, and shortly after he left Guadalajara rebels broke out in half a dozen places along the Southern Pacific route and subsidiary lines. By Jan. 10 the revolt in the state of Jalisco was full blown. Coupling the revolt with the absence of the archbishop from Guadalajara, the war department and most police soon verified the uprising.

It is reported here that Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez has taken command

Russia Scoffs at Kellogg's Charges of Bolshevik Plot

(Copyright 1927, By The New York Times.)

MOSCOW, Jan. 17.—Acting Foreign Minister Litvinov today issued a statement written in English regarding Secretary of State Kellogg's recent memorandum in which he charged the bolsheviks with trying to win Latin America.

"Statements of capitalistic countries lately have taken the habit of covering their incompetence in internal affairs or aggressive aspirations in the field of foreign policy by playing up 'bolshevik intrigues' or 'plots' of the Soviet government," he said, "whether the question at issue is a miners' strike in England, an attack by the American navy against the independent republic of Nicaragua or the shooting of people in Java and Sumatra, there is always the same justification in the 'plots and intrigues' of the bolshevik government."

"Blame Reds for Flood, Next!"

"I shouldn't be surprised if the enlightened politicians of the great powers one day set out to explain an earthquake in Japan or floods in America by such 'bolshevik' causes of the bolsheviks. It would simply be an insult to public opinion if I were seriously to repudiate such fantastic explanations."

"I am familiar with the resolutions of the Third International. Unfortunately I am not for the moment in a position to verify the quotations from them by Mr. Kellogg. I am also familiar with the malice resolutions of the American Federation of Labor has directed against the fundamentals of the soviet regime of Russia. It is as ridiculous to explain the attacks of the American navy against Nicaragua by criticisms of imperialism contained in the resolutions of the Third International as to explain the failure of crops in the soviet union by the resolutions of the American Federation of Labor."

"Foreign Minister Tchitcherine is perfectly right in welcoming the restoration of normal relations between the soviet union and Mexico. The government of Mexico will continue to make every effort to get normal relations restored with every state on the American continent. The soviet government cannot have and has not any relations with Mexico save relations of loyalty and nonintervention. To explain the deterioration in relations between the United States and Mexico by the perfectly loyal declaration of Tchitcherine is to cause amusement for the world."

"The soviet government has always stood and continues to stand on a platform of restoration of normal relations between the United States and the soviet union, and I can only express regret that Mr. Kellogg's fantastic attacks are prompted by motives which have nothing in common with the restoration of normal relations between the two countries."

REDS INCREASE ARMY

BY SIGMUND SCHULTZ.

BERLIN, Jan. 17.—With their agitators busy engaged in the three most important centers of conflict in the world—Central America, China, and eastern Poland, where more than 800,000 bolshevik agents were reported in the last three days—soviet Russia's dictators again are concentrating their attention on their "steam roller" army. There is the strongest army in Europe, with 1,270,000 armed men. The Tribune correspondent secured accurate details and figures by carefully tallying the reports of secret service men studying Russia for four different European nations.

Russia is using the old-time conscription service of two consecutive years, with reserves coming in for training periods from four weeks to two months.

The Moscow leaders are concentrating their efforts on the construction of a big air force.

Catholic propaganda in the rugged country in the south of the Valley of Mexico, running into the states of Morelos and Guerrero, have enlisted the Indians for the distribution of ammunition, carrying of letters and other communications.

Yesterday a train of charcoal burners were stopped as they descended from the mountains into the Valley of Mexico, and searched. The coal sacks contained small boxes of cartridges for rifles and pistols. They confessed that they had undertaken to deliver the cartridges on the order of priests. The police now are preventing coal carriers from descending the mountains, and a charcoal famine in Mexico City and the suburban towns and villages is threatened.

Advices from Guernavaca, capital of the state of Morelos, say that the priests are active in issuing propaganda to the peasants and Indians.

Government Arms Peasants.

Five thousand peasants will be armed by the federal government in the state of Jalisco to fight the Catholic insurgents, according to advices from Guadalajara. Former Gov. Zuno of Jalisco already has received 2,000 rifles and 500,000 cartridges for peasants belonging to agrarian faction.

CHURCH TREASURES SENTENCED.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 17.—George H. Sanders, former treasurer of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention, was sentenced today to twenty years in the state penitentiary on charges of theft of the board's funds.

JAPAN REFUSES TO INTERFERE IN CHINESE STRIFE

Shidehara Tells Policy in Address to Diet.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Japan's foreign relations will be governed by the fundamental principle of "extension of honest friendship to all nations," Baron Shidehara, the Japanese foreign minister, assured the Japanese diet at its meeting in Tokyo in a speech dealing mainly with China, soviet Russia, and the United States. The text of the address was made public here tonight by the Japanese embassy while, owing to the difference in time, the diet was already in its Tuesday session in Tokyo.

"Japan's policy covering all questions of relations between Japan and China," Baron Shidehara said, "may be summarized:

"First, promote the sovereignty and territorial integrity of China and scrupulously avoid all interference in her domestic strife."

"Second, promote the solidarity and economic approach between the two nations."

"Third, entertain sympathetically and helpfully the just aspirations of the Chinese people and cooperate in efforts of realization of such aspirations."

"Fourth, maintain an attitude of patience and toleration in the present situation in China and at the same time protect Japan's legitimate and essential rights and interests by all reasonable means at the disposal of the government."

"We are happy to be able to state that the relations of Japan and the soviet union continue gratifying. There are in certain sections people who indulge in alarming speculations that the interests of Japan and the soviet union are destined to clash in Manchuria. But we have no aggressive policy in Manchuria or elsewhere."

Sees Accord With U. S.

"I regret that the question of discriminatory treatment involved in the United States immigration act of 1924 still remains unadjusted," he continued, and then pointed to the "welcome facts that on this and all other matters of common interest the true knowledge and sympathetic understanding of Japan have grown considerably in the United States in recent years."

"A mutual understanding is the first essential step for the settlement of all international questions and I am firmly convinced that the two nations, conscious of their important missions as guardians of the peace of the Pacific, will stand side by side for all time in friendly accord for the fulfillment of such responsibilities."

Will Protect Japanese Interests.

"Fourth, maintain an attitude of patience and toleration in the present situation in China and at the same time protect Japan's legitimate and essential rights and interests by all reasonable means at the disposal of the government."

NEVER'S DEEDS HIS PLATFORM FOR NEW TERM

Mayor Back, Strong for Work, Campaign.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

(Picture on back page.) Mayor Dever, looking fit and strong, returned yesterday from his trip to the north, and gave local politics a new platform. The mayor's new run of city politics, with planks covering everything under the sun, the mayor deems a necessary superfluity.

Will Rely on Things Done.

Is the mayor is not going to use the standard type of platform in his campaign. For planks he will rely on the achievements of the Dever regime, and his leaders point out it is to be a platform not of promises, but of actual performance. It came out yesterday at a luncheon, at which George E. Brennan and one or two others included a "bowl of soup" with the mayor.

It was revealed that during his fortnight of golf at Biloxi, where the mayor made a score of 92, Mr. Dever had not framed a platform.

"Platform?" Mayor Dever said as he emerged from the conference. "I don't need any stereotyped platform. I'm going to run on the record made by the Dever administration."

"Platform?" the mayor shrugged his shoulders. "You know what platform amounts to in modern times."

Rehe Answers What?

"What's a candidate for mayor or alderman got to do with planks on subjects with which he does not come in remotest touch? Fancy a man running for constable, saying all he can do is go to Washington and make the administration keep out of Nicaragua. The public is wise."

"None of the ordinary platform making for me. I'm going to take my planks to the voters on a record of actual performance."

The mayor said he has not selected a successor to John J. Sloan as president of the board of local improvements. The Democratic organization is getting in a strong word for Clay Smith, deputy commissioner of public works.

"The first thing I shall work on is the Wabash avenue bridge bond issue," the mayor said. "The bridge is needed, but whether the increase in property valuations warrants a bond issue must be decided by referendum."

On the mayor's special train back to Chicago were Joseph F. Connelly, fire commissioner; Fred J. Ringler, William Luthardt and several other Chicagoans. Mrs. Dever will remain in St. Paul for several days.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Half a million dollars damage was caused tonight by a fire which destroyed the plants of the United States Bedding company and the Northwood Bedding company here. Fourteen residences and a church were damaged.

Thompson Refuses to Answer Lundin; Fitzmorris Brands His Charges False

William Hale Thompson refused yesterday to answer the charge of his former political boss, Fred Lundin, who said: "Either Fitzmorris willfully and maliciously lied in his statement or else Thompson committed perjury when he testified." Former Chief of Police Charles C. Fitzmorris answered that he had not lied and offered to prove the statement challenged.

The controversy was over a recent statement by Fitzmorris that as soon as he was made chief of police Lundin gave him orders as to transfers and promotions of policemen. Fitzmorris said this was the cause of the break between Thompson and Lundin, as he, Fitzmorris, refused to allow Lundin to use the police department as a political club with which to reward or punish.

Cites Testimony of Thompson.

Lundin, in an open letter to the press Sunday, cited Thompson's testimony at the trial in which Lundin and others were accused of hoodlums. Thompson, some time ago referring to his testimony in that trial, said he "hurried home to save Fred Lundin from the pentagon."

His testimony, as dug up by Lundin now to confront him in his present political struggle, was to the effect that Lundin had opposed politics in the school board and the police department, and that Lundin had never made any requests for appointments or favors.

That sworn testimony was absolutely contradicted by Fitzmorris, who said in his statement of a few weeks ago that Lundin had sought to rule the police department. This Lundin pointed out in his answer to Fitzmorris with the unqualified statement:

"Fitzmorris lied or else Thompson committed perjury."

Thompson Refuses Answer.

"Why should I answer Lundin; he lives in the country?" Thompson said yesterday when asked if he would reply to Lundin.

"But he said you are a perjurer or else Fitzmorris is a liar and Fitzmorris said he didn't lie," Thompson was told.

"Lundin put up his hand to God before Senator Reed and said he was out of politics." The man who would be mayor again said, "No, I'll not answer Lundin."

"I'll answer him," said the former chief of police. "I was right in my statement and I can prove it."

Fitzmorris Writes Lundin.

Then he wrote the following letter to Lundin: "Fred: I hope you will not think that I am unduly familiar, but feel after watching you work for eight years that I know you pretty well."

"Or do it? You change so quickly; you used to dodge the newspapers, but now you write long open letters. You used to claim you weren't interested in politics around here and that you lived on a farm near Wisconsin. That's all changed now."

"And it isn't the old Fred Lundin to take two weeks and two thousands words to answer the simple statement that you quit Mayor Thompson because he appointed a chief of police who wouldn't take orders from your representatives. Of course, that's hard to answer because it happens to be true."

Wanted "Super" Police Chief.

"Remember how it annoyed you? You tried a lot of schemes. Among them was the plan to get John Williamson appointed as 'law enforcement commissioner,' with the idea that he would be a superintendent of police and make it so uncomfortable for me that I'd be forced out. He didn't last long."

"And then the trouble with Judge Crowe. You ought to know about that because you engineered it."

"I'm a little bit disappointed that you didn't run across, in your search of the records, the fact that in the last year of my conduct of the police department there were no unsolved murders, no payroll robberies, and no bank robberies. The Association of Commerce, through its crime commission and published reports, can give you the figures and also the proof that all forms of crime were reduced about 50 per cent."

"Maybe that little group of 'yes' men that helps get up the campaign material for you didn't want these facts. However, they can be found and verified."

"But I suppose you'd rather get up your own show. Still the same old motto: 'When in doubt give a parade.'"

Littlefinger Attacks Crowe.

Edward R. Littlefinger, Devereux-Brundage candidate, in speeches last night, followed up the Lundin broadsides at Thompson by charging State's Attorney Crowe with party treachery against County Treasurer George F. Harding at last November's election. He declared that Harding found William Hale Thompson's support, coupled with Crowe's treachery, "in words like the one he lives in—the 23rd," so heavy a handicap that he ran 15,000 votes behind Martin J. O'Brien in city wards and precincts.

How to Carry Gun in Auto Told by Busch.

You can carry a revolver in your automobile, but it must not be carried in such a way that you can use it quickly. Corporation Counsel Busch ruled yesterday in an opinion asked by Chief of Police Collins.

The chief wanted to know if his men could arrest citizens found with guns in the door pockets and under the seats of their cars.

"There is an obvious distinction between a revolver carried in an automobile in close proximity to the person and one carried at a place in a car in such a way that it cannot be used instantaneously," Mr. Busch replied.

DUCE EXTENDS FASCIST BOND TO WORLD ITALIANS

Will Begin His Societies in South America.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ROME, Jan. 17.—Having completed the concentration of all authority in Italy within the Fascist party, Premier Mussolini now is turning his attention abroad.

Under a plan being developed in Rome all Italian societies in Argentina and Chile will be united in a central "colonial committee," whose president will be a Fascist personality and whose vice president will be vice president of the local Fascio where the colonial committee is established—probably Buenos Aires.

This central committee will confer and cooperate with the Italian diplomatic service abroad for the protection of Italians in their district. The existing Italian societies either will be absorbed or will be eliminated. The Italian diplomatic service is being reorganized, with Fascist party members getting important posts.

For the time being, this reorganization of Italian elements abroad will be confined to Chile and Argentina, where their numbers form an unusually large proportion of the population. There is a possibility, however, that it later will be carried to the United States.

Sanctioning the possibility of adverse criticism to this move, the Fascist press suggests that the president of the association of Fascists abroad send to all the local Fascist groups throughout the world Premier Mussolini's decalogue, published after the congress of Fascist groups abroad, held in Rome last year. The first article of this decalogue commands that Fascist Italians obey scrupulously the laws of the country in which they reside.

Would Abolish Night Life.

ROME, Jan. 17.—(U. P.)—Alleging that the Charleston was based on Negro sex appeal, the tango a development of suggestive motions, and the shimmy purely an animal creation, reformers have joined with Premier Mussolini in his campaign to abolish night life. Jazz, the reformers said, lacked grace and caused "detritum tremens of life."

Chicago Band Leader Shot Dead by Accident in Africa

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Jan. 17.—Bert Roloff, leader of the Havana band, at present touring South Africa and Rhodesia, died today of a gunshot wound accidentally incurred while hunting.

Bernard C. Roloff, 350 Washington boulevard, Oak Park, said his brother was the leader of the London Havana band. Roloff was his stage name. He has been touring the world for several years. Mr. Roloff said he would make arrangements to bring the body home.

PIONEER DIES

THE REV. JOSHUA SMITH.

JOSHUA SMITH, 85, PIONEER CHICAGO CLERGYMAN, DIES

The Rev. Joshua Smith, 85 years old, pioneer Chicago clergyman, died yesterday at the Burnside community house, 1123 East 30th street, which he and his wife, Amina Eveline Smith, founded in 1911, and which he, since the death of Mrs. Smith a year ago, had been directing alone. Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Kling D. Beach of St. James Methodist Episcopal church, will be held at the community house tomorrow at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Oakwood.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, who served through the civil war as a cavalryman, was a member of the George H. Thomas post, G. A. R. He was noted as a lecturer on civil war subjects. Mrs. Smith at the time of her death was known as the oldest native born Chicago woman. Her father was Alonzo Church Wood, after whom Wood street was named.

The Rev. Mr. Smith is survived by two daughters, Amina E. Smith and Jessie J. Smith Calhoun. The community house he and Mrs. Smith founded cared for 300 poor children.

COUNTY BOARD OPPOSES SMALL'S TAX ON GASOLINE

Gov. Len Small's highway policy was attacked yesterday in the county board, which placed itself on record as opposing the governor's proposed 3 cents a gallon tax on gasoline unless Cook county is given a fair apportionment of the roads to be built from the proceeds of the tax.

"Gov. Small promised every downstate legislator that a wide, paved road would pass his farm if he voted for the small road program," said Commissioner John W. Gilman. "It would take a billion dollars to build the roads he promised. But it would take only a comparatively small amount to build the roads he proposed for Cook county."

Small's Road Education.

The discussion was started when Commissioner William Duce said he thought it unwise to oppose the gasoline tax. He voted in favor of the resolution, however, after it had been changed so that it protested against the tax only until the Chicago area had been granted a fair share of the roads.

President Anton J. Cermak, author of the resolution, quoted statistics to show that Cook county paid more in state license fees last year than it has received in roads under the entire state program.

Chicago Money for Downstate.

"Chicago is motorizing so swiftly that in a few years, we'll have half the motor cars in the state," he asserted. "We've got less than 5 per cent of the roads. It's about time we made our protest felt to the state legislature. You can ride for miles on a downstate highway without seeing a car. Contrast that with conditions on our county payments on a Sunday afternoon."

ANCIENT LEGAL PAPERS GIVEN TO N. U. LAW SCHOOL

An anonymous benefactor has supplied funds with which the Northwestern university school of law has purchased ten volumes containing original specimens of legal documents filed in English courts between 1200 and 1300. According to John H. Wigmore, dean of the law school, the documents, many of them on ancient parchment, furnish in themselves a history of law in England. They were purchased from E. Williams, an attorney of Brighton, Eng., who collected them from the families originally holding them.

Many of the documents are in Latin.

Property Owners Plan New Washington St. White Way

Washington street, from Michigan avenue to the river, will be lighted as well as State street within a short time, if the preliminary plans of property owners made yesterday, mature. Representatives of fifteen property owners, who control most of the property on Washington street west of Wells street, met in the Palmer house and formed a temporary organization, headed by Reuben Metz, 78 West Washington street. Another meeting will be held in two weeks to organize permanently, and at which time efforts will be made to induce the Illinois Bell Telephone company to lend its approval to a plan which would extend the new system to the river.

A Girl's Critical Age

READING between the lines, it takes a mother or sister to divine the needs of a girl just budding into womanhood: "My sister was not very strong and had been taking all sorts of pills and stuff for constipation. She was fourteen and of course embarrassed with pimples. So I bought her a large bottle of Syrup Pepsin. She has had no constipation since, her complexion is good and she is much stronger, healthier and happier. Now I always recommend Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin." (Name and address will be sent on request.)

PATRICK J. CARR ESTATE VALUED AT ONLY $75,000

The late Patrick J. Carr, who had millions of dollars as county treasurer, who thought nothing of giving a $100 bill to a needy friend, and who had thousands for charity and other thousands from his own pocket, left personal property worth only $75,000, according to an estimate made yesterday before Frederick W. Ellis, assistant to the probate judge.

The entire Carr estate is worth about $75,000, two-thirds of this being real estate, according to Attorney W. D. Buchanan. Probate of the estate has been delayed for two months since the death of the sheriff elect while assets of the estate were being looked up.

Mr. Carr was found dead in his home, 3528 South Western avenue, and a daughter, Margaret. An inventory, showing the exact holdings of Mr. Carr during his lifetime, will be filed later, according to Attorney Buchanan.

Patrons were wont to say of Carr that he was worth several millions. But close friends last night said he was not a miser at the smallness of his estate.

"Money was never stationary in Carr's pockets," one declared. "His pocketbook was always open to friends and to the needy and he wasn't the sort of man who builds up a large estate."

RICHES IN REACH OF NORMAL PERSONS, SAYS THRIFT WEEK LEADER

Every normal person should become rich. There is no fundamental reason why he should not, in the opinion of Walter B. Crawford, president of the Illinois Bankers association. Speaking yesterday in support of National Thrift week, Mr. Crawford asserted that measured by the standards of 200 years ago the ordinary people are rich right now.

"We can't all become rich at once," he added, "but as modern manufacturing and distribution become more efficient the wealth of society as a whole grows."

"Possibly every person in normal circumstances won't be able to gather as many goods as the wealthy now have, but I am certain there is no reason in nature why such a condition can't be brought about."

Sammons Sought to Answer Pay Roll Robbery Charge

Police last night started to seek James (Fur) Sammons, gangster and beer runner, to return him to Baltimore, Md., where he was wanted on a charge of participating in a $27,500 payroll robbery last October. The hunt started after Gov. Small had notified Chief of Police Collins that the Baltimore warrants, held up because of a request by Sammons' attorneys for a hearing, had been released.

$176,000,000 NEEDED FOR NEW U. S. BUILDINGS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Postmaster General New today estimated that it would require an expenditure of $176,000,000 to satisfy the minimum requirements throughout the country for additional postoffices and government buildings. They estimated that $15,000,000 would be required for the Chicago postoffice alone. Of this amount $5,000,000 is already authorized for the purchase of a site.

The report transmitted to congress by the joint committee on public buildings of the treasury and postoffice departments followed a survey of the public building needs of the entire country at the present time. Two hundred and twenty-five cities are listed where public buildings are badly needed, but no attempt is made to establish priorities which should be attempted during the first year of construction under the present public buildings act.

It is anticipated that congress will increase the authorization under the present act from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 so that all the buildings contemplated under this act can be built. This latter figure would make available an annual expenditure for public buildings outside of Washington of $35,000,000 rather than $25,000,000.

"It should be noted," the report stated, "that the postal service doubles in about ten years, and it is, therefore, obvious that with the present limitation of expenditures provided in the act, there would be no possibility of the building program catching up with public building requirements."

Ten Illinois cities, aside from Chicago, will benefit if the report is adopted by congress. With the amounts to be expended at each they are:

Oak Park... $25,000,000
Waukegan... $25,000,000
Springfield... $25,000,000
Aurora... $25,000,000
Ottawa... $25,000,000
Freeport... $25,000,000

Vast savings will be accomplished

if a new building is erected for the postal and other governmental activities in Chicago, the report states. The postoffice department is now studying the engineering problems in Chicago and will make public within a short time a report detailing the amounts.

"Congress has previously appropriated $3,975,000 for the site, and it is thought the site will be purchased within the next six months," says the report. "In view of the known conditions in Chicago and the fact that congress has indicated its desire to carry forward this project, it is recommended that consideration be given to the construction of a new building."

The total minimum needs of Illinois call for an expenditure of $15,000,000. Only two states, New York with $19,000,000 and Pennsylvania with $20,547,000, exceed this amount.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN KILLS HIMSELF.

An unidentified man about 38 years old shot and killed himself yesterday afternoon inside the Santa Fe railroad tracks at the Des Plaines river bridge in Lyons town ship. A hunter who found the man unconscious in the snow notified the police and he was taken to the Berwyn hospital, where he died.

COUZENS-MELLON QUARREL AIRED IN TAX HEARING

Memoranda on Ford Stock Introduced.

BY JOHN HERRICK.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Detroit, Mich., Jan. 17.—[Special].—The sedate mixture of millions and tax formulas and production figures which has been simmering along its technical way here in the $21,000,000 Ford tax suit erupted today in one of those outbursts which those who were aware of the hidden explosive components have been expecting.

The Couzens-Mellon dispute got its first airing in open court. Secretary Mellon's name was cast back and forth from attorney to attorney. And there was opened up the whole question of the motives, sincere or sinister as they may be, behind the government's action in lodging an additional assessment against the stockholders who sold their minority stock in 1919.

Ask for Memoranda.

The detonation came when Attorney Joseph E. Davies, for the plaintiffs, demanded that the government produce two memoranda, one sent to the commissioner of internal revenue in 1922, the other given to Mr. Mellon personally, March 6, 1925. These were the documents which criticized the $9,489 valuation as of March 1, 1919, and placed on each share of Ford stock in 1919 by Commissioner Daniel C. Roper, and which suggested that the government use a different method of valuation. This method later was used by the government and Senator James Couzens and his fellow shareholders were asked to pay an additional tax of $11,000,000.

It came out today that the 1922 memorandum was sent to the tax bureau by a congressman. The 1925 memorandum was given Secretary Mellon by one M. W. Thompson, who has been partially identified as a New York accountant, formerly an official of the Ford company. It was suggested today that the similarity between the two memoranda is evidence that both originated from the same source.

Motives Not Disclosed.

But what motives lay behind the effort to persuade the government to reopen the Ford sale case and assess the minority stockholders half again as much as the $20,000,000 they had already paid remain a matter of speculation.

The only surmise supported by counsel is that the same person or persons who sent the 1922 memorandum and failed to stir the government to action took heart again because of the Mellon-Couzens feud, and waited until the statute of limitations had almost expired in order that the bureau of internal revenue would be forced to act without due deliberation, and sent in the "Thompson memorandum" and not with success on this second attempt.

Produces Memoranda.

In reply to Mr. Davies' demand, Alexander W. Gregg, general counsel for the tax bureau, produced the original 1922 memorandum and a copy of the 1925 memorandum.

"The reason I ask for these," Mr. Davies said, "is to trace the history of the official action taken on the 1922 memorandum."

It is the plaintiff's contention that there was no action taken, that the Ford stock sale was regarded in the bureau as a closed case, not to be reopened. To prove this claim, Mr. Davies demanded the bureau's confidential files relating to the memorandum. Mr. Gregg refused and there was a storm.

Court Upholds Gregg.

Mr. Davies demanded an order from the court compelling the government to produce its files or to furnish a list of witnesses who might be subpoenaed. The court refused.

The 1922 memorandum and the Thompson memorandum were shown to contain very similar matter.

The 1925 memorandum concluded with a charge of collusion between all the parties concerned in the 1919 deal. The memorandum came to the secretary's hands on March 4, 1925, and was turned over to Commissioner Blair. On March 7, six days before the statute of limitations would have taken effect, Senator Couzens and the other taxpayers were notified of the additional assessment on a March 1, 1919, sale of $2,524 a share.

When Caillaux Speaks, the World Listens
His clear voice is inspiring, his throat ever in perfect condition

AS one of the outstanding public men in France, Joseph Caillaux depends upon the power of oratory in advocating his ideas and in swaying his colleagues. To safeguard his voice is his constant aim. His favorite among cigarettes is Lucky Strikes, both for finer flavor and throat protection.

Lucky Strikes have become the favorites of men whose priceless voices thrill their audiences, as they have with the millions because, first, they afford greater enjoyment and second, they are certain not to irritate even the most sensitive throat.

The world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged, perfectly blended, give them their richer flavor.

But in addition, a costly extra process—toasting for 45 minutes—develops the hidden flavors of the choicest tobaccos and at the same time removes all "bite" and harshness.

Smoke Lucky Strikes. They give added pleasure—you'll like them.

The NEW YORK EVENING JOURNAL --- key to the World's Richest Market

To reach the discriminating public
New York's
SMARTEST SHOPS
advertise consistently in the New York Evening
Journal

There is a large section of the New York buying public which is known as the "quality market." The purchases of these people are confined to goods of the better grade—merchandise of the sort that appeals to persons of good taste and discrimination.

This quality group—the richest section of the world's richest market—is composed of people who have educated desires, and the means to satisfy them. They know what they want, and they don't mind paying a good price to get it. Their patronage is the coveted goal of all the better shops in the New York market.

It is a significant fact that the most successful of these merchandisers rely chiefly upon the New York Evening Journal in soliciting this trade. Many of the best known retail houses in New York spend more money on advertising in the Evening Journal than in any other New York newspaper!

This established policy is based upon the best of all reasons—results! It has been found by years of experience that advertisements in the Evening Journal pull better, have a wider audience, sell more goods—that the influence of this great newspaper among the most discriminating people is greater than any other.

That is because the New York Evening Journal goes every night into 700,000 homes, in which live 3,000,000 of the 9,000,000 consumers in the New York market!

Nothing takes the place of circulation. For 28 consecutive years the Evening Journal has had the greatest evening paper circulation in New York. Twice as much as the next New York evening newspaper—plus 86,000! There is no other way to get such daily, concentrated, home coverage.

The experiences of these New York merchants are so many sign-posts to prosperity. They show how simple it is to capture the most extensive and profitable markets, they point the way to big business and profits, they are guarantors of success.

New York advertisers have confidence in the New York Evening Journal because the New York Evening Journal has the confidence of the public. This great newspaper is the main connecting link between supply and demand in the New York market. Use it to solve your merchandising problems!

after promising to come taking the bats.

"I sent for that man months ago. He only came to see me last week. He wasn't very anxious to see me at all, but when he did he confessed everything."

"I have not released all this data because the American league has acted on these two men and neither the league nor I want to embarrass them."

The major and minor league baseball games closed with Landis at French Lick were as close mouthed as the commissioner yesterday.

They ratified the commissioner's four new rules by which he hopes to clean up baseball.

In the first of the new rules, baseball's "statute of limitations," the time limit after which charges against players would be void, was fixed at five years. That is a longer time than the Cobb-Speaker betting episode, but had it been in effect it would have ruled out the Ribicoff-Candell charges.

Otherwise the baseball men did little but continue their annual argument over the draft.

SMITTY—GOOD MORNING

MULLEN DANGLES TITLE BAIT FOR MILLER AND SHEA

Ring Board May Crown Winner Champion.

The winner of the Eddie 'Doc' Miller ten round decision but at the Coliseum on Thursday night may be recognized as the world's featherweight champion by the Illinois boxing commission, Promoter Jim Mullen said yesterday.

There is no recognized featherweight champion and Shea and Miller are two of the strongest contenders for the honors. Both can make the weight easily.

"Boxing commissions in other states have given the titles to fighters when champions were too heavy for their divisions," Mullen said. "The Illinois boxing commission can do the same and I intend to petition this day night's fight the world's featherweight champion. The Illinois commission recognized Bud Taylor as the bantamweight champion when Phil Rosenberg refused to make weight for him."

Winner to Meet Morgan.

Mullen may match the winner of the Morgan fight for the world's junior lightweight championship. Morgan's manager is willing to put Ted against either fighter and Mullen has the word of the managers of Shea and Miller that they will accept the match.

Miller and Shea yesterday put in a strenuous drill. Each boxed with his sparring partners and went through the usual routine of gym work. They went on the road in the morning and will do the same tomorrow morning. They will engage in their final boxing workouts tomorrow afternoon.

Mandell Eyes This Bout.

Billy Petrolle of Fargo, N. D., and Spig Myers of Idaho, who clash in the other ten round bout of the double windup, are attracting a lot of attention. This fight is picked by many to be even more interesting than the Miller-Shea contest. Eastern promoters already are angling for the services of the winner to meet Sammy Mandell for the world's lightweight championship.

Jimmy Severs and Fernando Gonzalez will take punches for ten rounds in the windup bout of the double windup. The two bouts are scheduled for 10 p.m. at the Coliseum. The bouts are scheduled for 10 p.m. at the Coliseum.

Resourcelful Wins Madonna Purses at N. O.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 17.—[Special.]—The Madonna purses, a mile dash for fillies and mares of 4 years and upward, was the featured number at the Fair Grounds this afternoon, and the winner, Frank Kelly's filly Resourcelful, paid $14.60 for each $2 in the mutuels. Golden Johnson rode the winner.

C. P. Foley's gelding mare, Child's Play, an outsider in the betting, made the early pace, heading the field for six furlongs. When Johnson called on Resourcelful, she raced down the pace-maker. Miss Meles, the favorite, closed strongly to nose out Child's Play for the place.

Brokerage was reported to the federal reserve bank for the week ended last Wednesday showed a decrease of nearly $17,000,000, the first drop in several weeks.

National Life Building

Chicago, Illinois

First Mortgage Leasehold 6% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds (Closed Mortgage)

Dated January 1, 1927

Due January 1, 1947

Interest payable January 1 and July 1. Coupon bonds in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100, negotiable as to principal only, interchangeable as to denominations. Callable as a whole or in part on any interest payment date on sixty days' notice at 102 and accrued interest. Interest payable without deduction for Normal Federal Income Tax up to 2%.

Principal and Interest Payable at CHICAGO TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, CHICAGO, Trustee

The following information is contained in a letter from the Twenty-Nine South La Salle Building Corporation, the owner, describing the bond issue:

LOCATION: The National Life Building is located at the southeast corner of La Salle Street and Arcade Place (Number Twenty-Nine South La Salle Street), midway between Madison and Monroe Streets, in the heart of the financial district of Chicago. Within a radius of two blocks are situated seventeen of the largest financial institutions of the City, also the offices of the leading Investment Banking and Stock Exchange Houses.

BUILDING: The National Life Building, one of the best known office buildings in Chicago, is a thirteen-story structure of modern type, steel frame, fireproof construction, fronting 88 feet on La Salle Street with a depth of 209 1/2 feet, containing a net rentable area of approximately 160,640 square feet. It is over 99% rented with tenants of exceptionally high standing, including such corporations as The National Life Insurance Company of the U. S. A. (Home Office); The Bank of Montreal, and many other well known concerns.

SECURITY: These Bonds will be the direct obligation of the Twenty-Nine South La Salle Building Corporation, and will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage on the building and the leasehold estate in the land upon which it stands. The leasehold estate represents an asset of continually increasing value. The lease, covering an area of 17,133 1/2 square feet, calls for an annual rental of $150,000, without revaluation, for the full 99 year term.

Appraisals of the fair market value of leasehold estates as made by Frederick S. Oliver and Callistus S. Ennis, Real Estate, Chicago, and the building by John Griffiths & Son Company, Builders, Chicago, and J. E. O. Fridmore, Architect, Chicago, are as follows:

Leasehold Estate Valuation by Frederick S. Oliver	Leasehold Estate valuation by Callistus S. Ennis
$1,556,061	$1,541,728
Building Valuation by John Griffiths & Son Company	Building valuation by J. E. O. Fridmore
$2,384,800	$2,372,000
Total valuation	Total valuation
$3,940,861	$3,913,728

The combined lower appraisals as above, indicate a fair market valuation of $3,840,561, or over 256% of the principal amount of this issue of bonds. On the basis of these lower appraisals, this loan is 39% of the value of the mortgaged property.

EARNINGS: Net earnings after all charges except interest, depreciation and federal taxes for the year ending December 31, 1927, based upon leases now in force and under negotiation are estimated at $256,337.32, or 2.85 times the interest charges and about 2 times principal and interest sinking fund requirements.

SINKING FUND: The mortgage will provide for a sinking fund of $130,000 per annum, payable in semi-annual installments, beginning June 16, 1927, to be used first for the payment of semi-annual interest and then for the retirement of bonds by purchase or redemption by lot. If bonds are available for the sinking fund at par, the entire issue should be retired before maturity. Insurance for the full amount of the loan, payable to the Trustee, to be carried at all times. Titles will be guaranteed by the Chicago Title and Trust Company, to the full amount of the bond issue.

Application will be made to list these bonds on the Chicago Stock Exchange.

We offer these bonds when, as and if issued and accepted by us, and subject to the approval of counsel, Messrs. Dunning, Jurett and Maloney, of Chicago. Audits by Arthur Andersen & Company, Chicago.

Issue Authorized by Public Service Commission of Indiana

The following information regarding the Company has been summarized by Mr. Norman A. Perry, President of the Company, from his letter of January 14, 1927:

Business and Property: Indianapolis Power & Light Company has been organized under the laws of Indiana to acquire the electric light and power and heating properties of Indianapolis Light and Heat Company and Merchants Heat and Light Company. The new Company will supply without competition all the electric power and light service in the City of Indianapolis and surrounding territory, except that supplied to the Indianapolis electric railway systems. The total territory which will be served by the Company covers more than 390 square miles, and has an estimated population in excess of 500,000.

The Company will own a modern and efficient electrical plant (including five principal steam power generating stations) with a total station capacity of 105,000 K.W. which provides an ample margin of capacity over present demand and makes possible increased revenue without the necessity of expenditure for additional generating plant. Over 88% of the gross revenue of the system is derived from the sale of electricity. More than 52% of this gross revenue is derived from power contracts. The output of electric energy of the combined properties for the twelve months ended June 30, 1926, was 325,000,000 K.W.H.

Security: The First Mortgage Gold Bonds will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a direct first mortgage on all of the fixed properties presently to be acquired by the Company. These properties have recently been examined by Stone & Webster, Inc., who estimate the cost to reproduce new to be in excess of $52,000,000, which includes allowance of $6,000,000 for going concern value.

Earnings: The consolidated earnings of the properties to be acquired by Indianapolis Power & Light Company, as certified to by Messrs. Haskins & Sells, Certified Public Accountants, for the years ended June 30, 1924, 1925 and 1926, and as per books for the twelve months ended November 30, 1926, were as follows:

Annual Interest Requirements on $30,000,000 First Mortgage Gold Bonds, Series A, 5% (this issue)				$1,500,000

*Adjusted to include 8% of gross operating revenue for maintenance in accordance with requirements of the mortgage and to exclude estimated amounts applicable to capital accounts for 1926.

Net earnings available for interest for the twelve months ended November 30, 1926, as shown above, were equal to about 2.45 times the annual interest requirements of this issue, and for each of the three twelve months' periods ending June 30 were substantially over twice such interest charges.

Management: The operation of Indianapolis Power & Light Company will be under the supervision of Utilities Power & Light Corporation (which has had an extensive and successful experience in the management of public utility properties) in association with men who have managed the predecessor companies over a long period.

Application will be made in due course to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

All information given herein is from official sources which we regard as reliable; but it is to be understood that the statements herein contained are to be regarded as representations of the undersigned.

Legal proceedings relating to the issue of these bonds and the form of the indenture are being passed upon by Messrs. Rudolph, Bishop & Stern, New York City, who have associated with themselves as Indiana counsel Messrs. Smith, Eganter, Harbrough & Smith, Indianapolis, for the Company; and by Messrs. TRADE REPORTS
SHOW EUROPE'S GAINING GROUND

BY O. A. MATHER.

Europe's recovery from the effects of war and her efforts toward reaching a balance in international trade are graphically shown in data on our foreign trade issued yesterday by the department of commerce. Last year Europe reduced its purchases in this country and expanded its sales to us.

The trade figures for 1926 place our exports at $4,610,411,897, a decline of $99,486,000 from 1925. On the other hand, imports were $4,432,541,627, an increase of $305,953,000. The net result was that we had a favorable balance of trade of $177,870,000 last year compared with $162,838,000 in 1925. Part of the shrinkage in our exports may be ascribed to lower commodity prices, particularly cotton. This country, however, augmented its gold supply by $17,744,000, compared with a net loss of $134,564,000 in 1925.

Peoples Gas Earnings Increase.

Further improvement in earnings was made last year by the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke company, which reported a net income of $1,130,133, compared with $1,000,000 in 1925. The preliminary report for 1926 shows gross revenue of $3,888,980, compared with $3,824,587 in 1925; and net income of $524,587, compared with $477,887. On Oct. 28 the company reported 425,495 shares of stock outstanding, compared with 420,271 at the end of 1925. But the increased capitalization, outstanding only part of last year. On the shares outstanding last October the year's net income was equivalent to $12.31 a share. Net income for 1925 was equivalent to $11.51 a share. For the three months ended Dec. 31, last year, gross revenue was $1,184,195, and net income was $1,089,732, equivalent to $2.56 a share.

Crucible Steel Profits a Record.

The Crucible Steel Company of America also made public its annual report last night, showing the largest profits in several years. Chairman H. E. Williams said the larger earnings warranted increasing the common stock dividend from 5 to 6 per cent last month, and that the stockholders could expect a further increase in the near future. He said the directors believe this year will show a continuation of present prosperity, with as large a volume of business as last year.

Net income for 1926 was $5,647,721, after all charges. This is equivalent, after preferred dividends, to $7.72 per share on the $100,000,000 common stock. Surplus after dividend was $1,010,253, bringing total surplus to $2,699,883.

Net income for 1925 was $5,702,613, equivalent after preferred dividends to $7.11 per share on the common stock. The balance sheet as of Dec. 31 last shows current assets of $25,416,096 and current liabilities of $2,621,951.

Bank Deposits Increase.

The first 100 banks in size of deposits in the United States show an aggregate gain in deposits of $800,282,889 last year. Aggregate deposits on Dec. 31 last were $16,744,000,000, compared with $15,939,119,119 at the end of 1925. Their aggregate capital was $11,725,000, an increase of $61,670,000, and their total surplus and undivided profits were $1,228,256,443, an increase of $11,222,000, from $1,217,034,443 at the end of 1925.

Of the 100 banks New York has 27 and Chicago has 12. The Chicago banks are the Continental and Commercial bank, the First National and First Trust and Savings, the Illinois Merchants Trust, Central Trust of Illinois, National Bank of the Republic, Foreman National, Union Trust, Harris Trust and Savings, State Bank of Chicago, and Northern Trust.

Lipstick as Entree Can't Be Avoided, and Isn't Harmful

How much lip rouge does the average lipstick wielder consume in the course of a year?

The question occurs with E. B.'s query about whether this lapping up rouge along with one's food might eventually injure the digestion.

One of things that every woman knows is that the lips that smile after the desert are not the bright little cherubies they were before the soup was brought on. Is it not true, my sisters?

To date I have not heard of any notable casualties from swallowing the red, red lip coloring. Perhaps that is because of our fine American reputation for being able to swallow any thing and live to swallow again. And again, it may be due to the fact that lipsticks are composed of wax, pomade and cocoa butter in varying proportions, none of which ingredients would do any particular harm. The pomade is lard scented by natural flowers. The coloring matter is carmine, generally. Sometimes it is true, aniline dye is used in place of carmine, which, used in sufficient quantity, might eventually damage an appetite. The liquid lip rouge is generally carmine or one of the aniline dyes in an alcoholic solution. I have heard of cases of lip skin infections following the use of the latter ingredient. The moral, of course, is to know the reliability of your lipstick maker.

When alarmists drag up accusations against cosmetics as breeders of all kind of skin ailments I am not much concerned, because it strikes me that our sex would have died out centuries ago if there were truth in the charges.

HAROLD TEEN—GRANDPA'S SOUL GOES MARCHING ON

It may be, of course, that you can't exterminate such a fine, noble sex as ours, no matter what expedients are resorted to. The fact remains that in the time of the Pharaohs dusky court beauties carried their lips and the secret has been carried down the ages, escaping not a single era. With it all, digestions and skin seems to have stood up fairly well.

We probably have reached the highest point in lip rouge production. It is not recorded that any previous era gave the lipstick such frank publicity and it may be that we are overdoing this general color anointing. The constant rubbing and friction, it has been hinted from certain reliable sources, is more damaging to the thin and delicate cutaneous covering of the lips than the ingredients applied.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY
R. H. S.: THE TEETH SHOULD be cleaned night and morning and after each meal, if possible, by a circular motion of the tooth brush, brushing from the gums toward the tips of the teeth. Too much pressure is not advisable, but the work should be done quickly. Use a brush with bristles of different lengths, so that the innermost crevices of the teeth may be reached. For more detailed instructions, send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

D. H. E.: FOR A DRY SKIN USE a superfatted soap. It leaves a slight feeling of greasiness which is what the dry skin needs. It is necessary to wash the face with soap and water for the sake of cleanliness, but in your case your skin needs extra greasing with cold cream or a skin food.

G. K. P.: THE USE OF A GOOD rouge is not harmful, but it must always be removed at night, if you value your complexion. It is removed with cold cream or a good skin food.

B. Y. N.: DO NOT PUSH BACK the cuticle at the base of the nails with a sharp instrument. Instead, soak the fingers in warm water for about ten minutes and then press back the cuticle with an orange stick. If the nails are brittle soak them for ten or fifteen minutes each night in olive oil which has been slightly warmed.

A THREE DAYS COUGH! YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocodile, that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, crocodiles are recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocodiles, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the crocodiles go to the stomach, absorbed in the blood, and check the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed to cure persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for keeping up the system after colds or flu. It is not a sedative, but a stimulant, and is not relieved after taking crocodiles. Ask your druggist.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: Absence Makes the Father Wonder

Mrs. Lincoln Coy, '86, Is Elected President of Dearborn Alumnae

(Picture on back page.) Schoolmates as far back as 70 years ago at the old Dearborn seminary met yesterday in celebration of the birthday anniversary of the first principal of the school, Zuinglius Grover. The meeting is held annually to renew and cement the contacts of years ago when the school house stood at the corner of what is now Washburn and Washington, and when the future leaders of Chicago society were being taught their three R's. Miss Caroline McVane with her talk and her illustrations of the "Social and Civic Growth of Chicago" provoked the remembrance of the women present, and lent an informal air to the gathering.

Mrs. Lincoln Coy of the class of '86 was elected the new president, and Mrs. John F. Downey of the class of '97 and mother of eight sons and four daughters is the new vice president. Miss Carrie Blair Neely was re-elected treasurer. Miss Mary Van Vorst is again the recording secretary, and Mrs. Charles S. Williamson, who has been corresponding secretary for 25 years, also was re-elected. Mrs. John Elliott Jenkins was re-elected chairman of the executive committee.

Mrs. Williamson read a cable from Paris sent by Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, who never forgets the occasion, no matter in what part of the world she finds herself on the anniversary celebration date. Mrs. Henry Blair, Mrs. John de Koven, Mrs. Charles C. Williamson, Miss Margarette Otis, Mrs. Lillian Hines and Miss Helen Drake, who presided, were among the alumnae present.

How to Have Soft, Pretty White Hands
Many women will undoubtedly be glad to know how they may have beautiful, white, soft, pretty hands regardless of the work they have to do. The secret lies in rubbing a little Ice-Mint into the hands occasionally, preferably just before retiring at night. In the morning you will be agreeably surprised at the pleasant transformation that has been wrought by even a single application of Ice-Mint. It is made from a Japanese product that is simply marvelous for its beautifying properties whether used on the hands or face. Remember, of what kind of work a woman does she should have pretty hands as they are really the true marks of refinement. A few applications of Ice-Mint will actually make any woman proud of her hands and skin. It costs little and is sold and recommended by good druggists everywhere.
